Did You Know?

St. Magdalene was very much aware of the need for the education of the poorest girls. She believed that they should have a right to education in the schools of charity and "it is the harvest that costs most, but which yields more fruit, as the conduct of one's whole life normally depends on the education one receives."

"The one who hopes more

will obtain more."

- St Magdalene of Canossa

Back to School Prayer

Dear God,

With a grateful heart, I embrace this Semester –
with all its wonderful, exciting activities and events.
With all the amazing learning I will experience.
With my beautiful Canossian family.

Grant me always a healthy body, a healthy mind –
A positive attitude, a growth mindset.
A humility and courage to try all things.
Love and compassion to help all beings.

With a grateful heart, I enter this Semester –
Knowing I still must grow!
Knowing I can make wherever I am a loving place!
Knowing that I will always be the best version of myself!

Thank You, God, for a beautiful Semester 2!

Did You Know?

“Mutual understanding, acceptance and universal affection without distinction” are to Magdalene, essential. In her choice to instruct, comfort and assist through service given freely without being in authority, patience and love, Magdalene gives much attention to the promotion of the person.

“Be cheerful and keep smiling for in the midst of much work, we must always be very cheerful.”

- St Magdalene of Canossa

Did You Know?

Magdalene wrote that the Daughters of Charity are to be "detached from everything... and ready for the divine service and to go anywhere, even to the remotest Country."

"Patience is the way that leads to holiness."

- St. Magdalene of Canossa

Did You Know?

Charity is like a blazing fire! Magdalene opened her heart to the Holy Spirit who guided her to the poor in other cities such as Venice, Milan, Bergamo and Trent. In only a few decades the number of her houses increased, and her religious family grew in the service of the Kingdom of God.

“No real peace can be found, if we do not trust God completely.”

- St Magdalene of Canossa
